Mayor Parker, of Somerset, subscribed $10 of the town's money to the fund to get Sam Jones to lecture there in the fight against saloons, saying as he did so, "If the town don't pay it I will."

The Lancaster Flouring and Milling mills has changed hands. Thomas Miller having sold his mill interest to William Ward, who is now sole owner. R. G. Ward, brother of William Ward, will be business manager.

While rendering aid in her yard, near Bryanville, Mrs. Wesley Farley's clothes caught fire and the wind fanning the flames, she was so badly burned that she died next day. She was 29 and a daughter of Mrs. Sallie Welch and sister of Miss Hallie Welch, now Deutherage, who taught at the college here a number of years ago.

Will Tuttle, of the firm of Tuttle & Cozatt, doing business near Perryville, tried to shoot J. V. Coppage, a Louisville drummer, with a shot gun because the latter lusted on the payment of a bill which was in dispute. Tuttle, it will be remembered, killed John Hancock at Junction City a year ago.

Mrs. Lucinda Greenleaf, of Lancaster, was given a dinner in celebration of her 81st birthday. No one attended under 65 years, and Mesdames Susan Price, Susan Anderson and Sallie Ann Harris were aged respectively 83, 77 and 75 years. The aged four can not be surpassed in Central Kentucky for well-preserved faculties and genial flow of spirits.

Postmaster General Smith reports that in the last fiscal year the gross revenue was $89,012,618, against $83,315,479 in 1890, and the gross expenditures $98,034,523, against $90,542,804; the number of postoffices 71,000, against 43,000. Within this period the population has increased about 50 per cent, while postal business has multiplied nearly threefold. There was an increase in postal receipts of nearly $6,500,000 over the aggregate of 1897, which is cited as a proof that the country is again prosperous. Over $204,000,000 were issued in money orders, churches of Atlanta. He was charged with a violation of the marriage vow, of coveting another man's wife and of wrecking his family, the wife being that of Rev. J. W. Wood.

MATRIMONIAL MATTERS.

Forty-three couples were licensed to wed at Cincinnati Thanksgiving day.

R. Graham Price and Miss Mary Walker were married at Danville last week.

Thomas E. Jasper and Miss Annie B. Jones, popular Somerset people, were married Friday.

Mr. Lou Moore, the florist at State College, Lexington, was married to Miss May Alloway, at Nicholasville.

Miss Ella Chapman died at Akron, O., the day before her marriage was to have taken place, and she was buried last night at his residence.

John Moore, 22, and Miss Mollie, the 18 year old daughter of Mr. George Parrish, of the East End, were married last night at his residence.

Philip J. Carr, who formerly lived at Paducah and was engaged to wed a Kentucky girl next month, was found murdered at Sioux City, Ia.

After a quarrel with her husband, Mrs. William Sautelle, of Guthrie, O. T., threw her baby into a deep well and then jumped in herself. Both were drowned.

John L. Shannon, for a number of years in the regular army, and Miss Iva M. Moran, of Milledgeville, eloped to Jeffersonville Thanksgiving day and were married.

Of all the fools the old fool is the greatest. W. E. Paine and Mrs. Mary T. Kinger met for the first time at Golden City, Mo., Wednesday and were married the next day.

Miss Jennie West, the handsome young lady of Harrodsburg, who used to teach school here, was married last week to Mr. Sol. C. Bloodworth, of Barnesville, Ga. The marriage occurred at Atlanta.

Miss Sue Coleman, of Burgin, daughter of Rev. T. H. Coleman, and Rev. George Green, of Covington, will wed at the Baptist church in Burgin, Dec. 7. The groom was captain of Company M, 2d Kentucky regiment.

Thursday at Union City, Madison county, a double wedding of considerable note was celebrated. Mr. John Oldham was married to Miss Lennah Hackett and Mr. George Noland claimed for a bride Miss Bessie Brooks.

Sergeant Howard Irwin, of Company C, 1th Kentucky volunteers, was arrested at Louisville, for desertion while home on a wedding trip, and was not only reduced to the ranks, but given a guard house sentence besides.

Wm. Vaughan, of Horse Cave, who attempted recently to run off with Miss Bertha Crabtree, but was overtaken by the old man and made to give her up, was more fortunate in the second attempt and they spent Thanksgiving as husband and wife.

At Bayville, L. I., William Cornell, aged 31, arose in the morning a handsome young bachelor, but that night retired a great-grandfather, with a daughter older than himself and a grandfather with a child old enough to make remarks about him. He had married the widow Overton, aged 76.

Last year in a fit of anger, Miss Susie Denuehy, of Lynn, Mass., threw vitriol in the eyes of her lover, Thos. Kellher, and rendered him totally blind. A warrant was issued for her, but the man would not appear against her and she finally went to him, begged him to forgive her and make her his wife so she could devote her life to him. They were married and she gave him ceaseless attention, but the shock to his system and the suffering his burned out eyes caused him, dethroned his mind and he is now a raving maniac, the wife, however, refusing to permit him to be taken to the asylum.

The total receipts from all sources of internal revenue during the year, amounted to $170,866,819.36, an increase over last year of $15,866,819.36, and larger by nearly $10,000,000 than for any year during the last decade. Of the total collections, Illinois furnished $39,558,686.09, nearly double that of New York, and equalling the collections from any other two States in the country—New York Kentucky, Ohio and Pennsylvania standing next in the order named.

In the case of the Osteopath Murphy, who applied at Bowling Green for an injunction to prevent the State board of health from revoking his certificate as a physician, Judge Settle held that the section of the statutes under which the State board of health claims the right to refuse or to revoke such certificates on the ground of unprofessional conduct, is void for uncertainty, and that the acts of the board against Murphy are arbitrary and without warrant of law.

Of 1,000 deaths in Europe 10 are by violence; in the United States 41.

CRAB ORCHARD.

Saturday night there was a candy pulling at the residence of Dr. Stapp for the benefit of the Christian church.

Many of our farmers are busy with hog killing. A car-load of fat hogs was shipped to the cities Friday by J. C. Siler and others.

A regular Klondike snow storm struck this place about 8 o'clock Saturday morning and the oldest citizens say it was the hardest snow for many years. For a few moments it was almost dark and lamps were lighted.

Rev. F. S. Pollitt, who had this station 13 years ago, returned the other day as presiding elder. He is much larger physically and has expanded mentally as much. His sermons were very fine and have been highly complimented.

Thanksgiving passed off unusually quiet here. A turkey shooting at Rowland attracted our best marksmen, so very little shooting was indulged in, and quail and rabbits enjoyed a season of rest. There were services at the Baptist church morning and night and we trust thanks quietly ascended from many homes to the Giver of all good gifts.

Miss Fannie Redd, one of our loveliest girls, went to Livingston to spend Thanksgiving with her aunt, Mrs. Dr. Cooper. Our people were very sorry to give up Mr. J. H. Stephens' family, and wish them every success in their hotel business at Livingston.

Loss is improving slowly. Messrs. Joe and Fred Newland and Hendley Bastin spent Thanksgiving with humfolds here.

FROM ANOTHER CORRESPONDENT.

Mr. Mac Gorton and Miss Lula Turnbull will be married Wednesday.

Inffman & Ashler, of Louisville, are putting in the new still at J. W. James' distillery.

There is talk of the Bastin Hotel changing hands, but the deal has not been closed yet.

Members of the Baptist church will meet next Sunday to try and arrange for a pastor next year.

J. W. James has bought 1,300 barrels of corn at $1.25 delivered, and is still contracting for more.

Frances Bright, one of Crab Orchard's best colored women and one who was held in high esteem by both white and black, died Sunday night.

Messrs. Gus Hofmann, Sam Holman and Joe Magee went to Bee Lick hunting the latter part of last week. Of course silver always brings birds. Miss Maggie Buchanan went to Louisville, Ky. J. G. Livingston and daughter, Maggie, went to Broadhead, Miss Belle Higgins went to Parksville, Miss Auntie Brough to Georgetown to be with Miss Birtie James, Morris Perkins to Lexington to spend Thanksgiving and Little Anna Newland came from Stanford to spend Thanksgiving at home. Miss Mamie McClure is visiting in Harrodsburg, Danville and Bryanville. Mrs. Mary Slaughter and Miss Eva Stegar are both improving.

Mrs. Mary Baker Eddy, discoverer and founder of Christian Science, has just completed, so she says, the examination of a class of about 70 of the active workers in Christian Science mind healing, to confer upon them degrees of the Massachusetts Metaphysical College as healers and teachers of this system of medicine, whose only crowned head is Divine Sovereignty, and whose only priest is spiritualized man.

The court of appeals holds that the alimony allowed Mrs. A. P. Gooding by the Kenton court, of $75 and $175 additional for the maintenance of her child, is exorbitant and says that the judgment should have been for $125 a year, paid quarterly, and in addition $175 for the maintenance of the child. The court below took into consideration that Gooding had taken up with another woman in making the award.

The snow and wind-storm which prevailed Saturday night throughout the Northeastern States continued Sunday morning at many points, and great damage was done. Throughout New England it was the worst storm ever known in November, and one of the severest in the history. Many fishing vessels and small craft were wrecked, and several lives lost. In New York State and in Pennsylvania the snowfall was very heavy.

Rev. J. S. Clair, a dope fiend, of Decatur, Ala., apparently died from the effects of a 15-grain dose of morphine and an inquest was held, with a verdict of suicide found. Clair was laid out and coffined, but during the night frightened the attendants almost to death by arising and protesting against further funeral proceedings.

The Waldorf Astoria employs 1,200 men and 400 girls. There is a separate barber shop for employees, where shaves are 10 cents each, and four barbers are kept busy. Charles Frohman, the Poon Bai of the American stage, has 70 people on his pay-roll. The appetites and pleasures of people who have the price keep the wolf from many a man's bedroom.

DANVILLE.

The W. C. T. U. ladies met with Mrs. J. T. Lapsley Saturday. This society continues to grow.

The Thanksgiving entertainment given by the Gold Star Mission Band of the Christian church was enjoyable and a success.

Mrs. Henry Sandifer spent Thanksgiving in Louisville. Miss Nellie McGoodwin gave an elegant reception Wednesday evening in honor of Misses Duke and Eaton. Miss DeMott, of Nashville, and Mrs. Richard Miller, of Richmond, are guests of Misses Mamie and Sue McRoberts. Mrs. R. D. Bruce and B. E. Phillips are on the sick list, but improving. Miss Laura Shelly and Mr. Ward Goodloe are members of a house party in Versailles. Miss Jennie Lee has returned from Lexington. Rev. G. W. Perryman occupied the Baptist pulpit Sunday. Rev. John M. Bruce, of Louisville, is visiting relatives near Danville. Mrs. Bright is the guest of her son, Ira Bright, of Lexington. Miss Anne B. Rayston, of Garrard, is with friends in Danville.

The annual praise meeting of the "Ladies Foreign Missionary Society" of the 1st church was held at the residence of Eugene Lee Tuesday afternoon. The disagreeable weather prevented some from attending, but the exercises were unusually interesting and pathetic. The devotional exercises were conducted by Mrs. Mary Irvine, followed by a talk that showed she was led of Him who said "I will go with you and put words into your mouth." Tender and appropriate memorials were read of Mrs. Mary Nash, Mrs. S. V. and W. S. Rowland, all having passed away since the last praise meeting to the "realm where the rainbow never fades, and the beautiful beings that pass before us like visions, stay in our presence forever." Miss Marion Green read a most interesting tract "A Dream" "Cast Thy bread upon the waters," was sweetly sung by Miss Fishback. Eight years ago this society commenced the support of a Bible woman in Japan, the amount, $80, being contributed on this day by free-will offerings, and from year to year the contribution has been $80. Tuesday the collection was $70, but the remaining $10 will be given by the absent members. The united prayers of the members were, that over the open graves of those loved ones that God would consecrate them anew to His service and that they falter not in any good work.

The Baldwin Hotel, San Francisco, burned. Six lives were lost, four persons were injured and 10 are missing. The property loss is estimated at $2,000,000. Lucky Baldwin, the owner, says he had only $150,000 insurance.

On the face of the returns the republicans seem to have the West Virginia Legislature, but the democrats in the House say they will unseat republicans and elect a senator or nobody shall.

Three Negroes were lynched by farmers Saturday night near Meridian, Miss., and the mob is said to be searching for others. Two Negroes assaulted and wounded a young planter.

The names of the new postoffices show the rating the people put on the heroes. Dewey has 18, Schley five, Shafter and Sigbee, four each, and Sampson, three.

In a bowling game contest at Chicago, between 12 young women, the one who masted 141 sticks in 30 minutes got the prize of a diamond ring.

Up-to-date cuts of Santa Claus represent him riding on a bicycle or in a horseless carriage in place of the familiar sleigh with reindeer team.

DOCTORS DON'T DENY IT.

The frank testimony of a famous physician.

When Dr. Ayer announced his Sarsaparilla to the world, he at once found the physicians his friends. Such a remedy was what they had looked for, and they were prompt to appreciate its merits and prescribe it. Perhaps no medicine known as a patent medicine—is so generally administered and prescribed by physicians as Dr. Ayer's Sarsaparilla for blood diseases, and diseases of the skin that indicate a tainted condition of the blood. Experience has proved it to be a specific in such diseases, and sores of long standing, old ulcers, chronic rheumatism, and many other like forms of disease have yielded to the persevering use of Dr. Ayer's Sarsaparilla after other medicines had utterly failed. The testimonials received from physicians to the value of this remedy would fill a volume. Here is one leaf signed by Richard H. Lawrence, M. D., Baltimore, Md.

"It affords me pleasure to bear testimony to the success which your preparation of Sarsaparilla has had in the treatment of cutaneous and other diseases arising from a vitiated condition of the blood. Where it is necessary, I might give you the names of at least fifty individuals who have been cured of long-standing complaints simply by the administration of Dr. Ayer's Sarsaparilla. One very remarkable instance was that of a quack of a woman who had lived at Cantonville, near this city. She had been afflicted with the rheumatism for three years, and had taken as she had informed me, more than one hundred dollars' worth of medicine to obtain relief without any beneficial result. I advised her to try a bottle of Dr. Ayer's Sarsaparilla and told her that if it failed to do her good, I would refund the money. A short time afterward, I learned that it had cured her, and a neighbor of hers similarly afflicted was also entirely relieved of his complaint by its use. This is the universal result of the administration of your Sarsaparilla. It is without exception, the best blood purifier with which I am acquainted."

There is no other similar medicine can show a similar record. Others have imitated the remedy. They can't imitate the record. Dr. Ayer's Sarsaparilla has the friendship of the physician and the favor of the family, because it cures. It fulfills all promises made for it. It has healed thousands of people of the most malignant diseases that can mutilate mankind. Nothing has ever superseded it and nothing ever will until a medicine is made that can show a record of cures greater in number and equal in wonder to those wrought by Dr. Ayer's Sarsaparilla. Dr. Ayer's Sarsaparilla, a story of cures told by the church, is sent free on request by the J. C. Ayer Company, Lowell, Mass. Write for it.

THE INTERIOR JOURNAL

STANFORD, KY., - NOV. 29, 1898

W. P. WALTON.

IN response to a request from a New York paper for his views on the question, Gov. Bradley hits the bull's eye when he says "We can not claim the Philippines on any ground save that of conquest. If this claim is just we certainly should not pay for that to which we are already entitled. If we are not justified in claiming by conquest we have no right to dictate the terms on which Spain shall surrender them." The proposition to give Spain $20,000,000 or any other sum for the islands, as we have all along maintained, is absurd and is disapproved by every thoughtful and patriotic citizen. Having made the offer, it is little wonder that Spain should call for a higher bid and when she names $100,000,000 it is rather a surprise that she didn't double it. The president's proposition is simply untenable and if accepted, we rely on the good sense of the Senate to reject any treaty that calls for the payment of a cent's indemnity to Spain, and should it fall us, then we pin our trust to the House refusing to vote an appropriation for such purpose. The most ardent expansionist outside of McKinley's little coterie is opposed to expansion when it has to be made both by blood and purchase. There are fears that the Philippines will cost a great deal more than they come to, even without the payment of a cent and for this reason the acquisition at all is opposed by many, including Gov. Bradley. Why the administration should have settled on $20,000,000 is inexplicable, unless it wants to be held up as a shining example of consideration for a fallen foe, which of all foes deserves no consideration. For the peaceful possession of the Louisiana territory, out of which were made the States of Minnesota, Iowa, North and South Dakota, Kansas, Nebraska, Missouri, Arkansas, Louisiana, Wyoming, Colorado and Montana, we paid only $15,000,000, and surely if there were any reason whatever for pecuniary recompense, which is utterly denied, the sum offered for the Philippines is out of proportion. They are 1000s of miles away, contain an undesirable population, will be hard to govern and costly in the extreme, so, expansionist as we are, we say, if Dewey didn't take them, let them go a thousand times, before putting up more money for them.

EDITOR MATTHEWS, of the Hartford Herald, is making a strong fight against Geo. P. Rowell & Co., the skinflint New York advertising agents, because in their publication known as Printer's Ink, they decried the value of country weekly newspapers as an advertising medium. The firm is trying to have Congress refund $25,000 or $30,000 postage that it paid on the publication, and Mr. Matthews has secured the promise of his Congressman, Hon. D. H. Smith, to do everything in his power to turn Rowell's little bill down, in pledging himself, Mr. Smith takes occasion to pay the country press the compliment of saying it is practically the only independent press in the country. Every newspaper man who does business with Rowell & Co., will get the hot end of the poker. We got it years ago and never expect to have further dealings with them.

EDITOR ALLEN, of the Cincinnati Democrat, is apparently as mild a mannered man as ever cut a throat or scuttled a ship, yet he says that "unless some of our delinquents settle up soon we'll pay for their funeral." This shows to what desperation delinquents will drive a man too. Manslaughter to us is repulsive, no matter how justifiable, but even we, who would have taken the prize from Moses for meekness had we lived to his day and the question had been left to a country fair, contemplate the killing of at least half a dozen delinquents before the holidays, so pay up or you may be shut up for good and all in your little box.

The Louisville Dispatch is spending its breath and wasting its time when it argues with the Louisville Post. If the Dispatch has nothing else to do, it should select a caquelous, well developed rat hole and employ its idle moments in pouring water therein.—Glasgow News. Or better, as they live in the same house, let the two editors repair to the woodshed and argue it out in private, or fight it out as best suits their tastes.

In this district alone 8,501 persons didn't think it worth while to vote in the late election, that is in 1896, there were with Jackson 10,379 votes cast and in 1898, but 25,238. In the former year, Thompson got 15,629 votes, while Gilbert got only 13,028 this year. The excitement over the presidential election accounts somewhat for the difference.

Just before he started to the gallows at Eddyville, Wm. Cato expressed a fear that he would catch cold, as the day was very raw. Considering his fearful crime, it is not a violent assumption to assume that if he did catch cold it was soon burned out of him in a land that is hotter than this.

SPAIN ACCEPTS.

WE GET THE PHILIPPINES FOR THE TWENTY MILLIONS. LOUISVILLE, Nov. 28.—Spanish commissioners verbally accept offer of $20,000,000 to cede the Philippine Islands to the United States. BOYLE.

As this was practically the only remaining contention, it is safe to assume that the treaty of peace will be signed at once and war's wrinkled front smoothed out.

THE Hon. Charles Bronston has filed a brief with the court of appeals against the Goebel election bill, which is a rehash of his speech made during the pendency of the bill in the Senate, and which was liberally used by the republicans in the recent campaign. The author evidently realizes that Mr. Goebel has gotten ahead of them all and that something must be done to stem the tide. People who know Mr. Bronston, however, will "jest lark" when they see him try to pose as an immaculate statesman of great political virtue and say that instead of styling himself an "amicus curiae," he should have referred to himself simply as an "amusing cuss."

"As long as murderers of the Portwood type are unchanged, Kentucky need expect nothing but a cheap price of life," says the Cincinnati Democrat. It is to be regretted that Gov. Bradley did not let Portwood pay the penalty of his crime committed after years of brooding over a fancied wrong, even if his execution would have disgraced his divorced wife and child. The trial judge and the jury saw no insanity in the cowardly and premeditated deed and Gov. Bradley might have well not listened to the trumped up claims of insanity to save his family from disgrace. If Portwood is insane, the penitentiary isn't the place for him.

PUTTING shoulder straps on a rascal does not make him a gentleman, by a long ways as the Chattanooga merchants found to their sorrow. They would not trust private, but sought the patronage of officers at Camp Thomas, and gave them credit right along. Now they wish they hadn't, but had kept the French sardines, potted hams and other luxuries that they bought lavishly. The officers of the 31st Michigan repudiated their bills and when the merchants tried to collect them, called them all manner of thieves and scoundrels.

THE effort in certain quarters to relieve J. W. Bailey of the leadership of the democratic minority in the House does not seem to strike him as formidable. In fact he says that he does not entertain the slightest doubt about the result. Seventy of the 101 democrats in the present House, who will be in the next, are pledged to him, leaving only 12 short of a nomination for speaker and more than that number of the new members have volunteered their support. Bailey has made some mistakes, but on the whole has done well and ought to be endorsed.

LET us all move to Florida, where the republicans cease from troubling and the populist gives his tongue a rest. Every member of the Legislature elected on the 8th Inst., is a democrat. The body consists of 32 Senators and 68 Representatives and not one of them is other than a simon-pure, dyed in wool, triple-plated democrat.

"OWING to conditions that might render his presence embarrassing," Gov. Bradley is forced to decline the invitation to address the Legion on its return to Louisville. It will be remembered that some sharp personalities passed between the governor and the colonel of the regiment before its departure for Port Rico.

THE Louisville Times pulled off another Thanksgiving day because only one man was murdered in Louisville Thursday. The crime ridden city is evidently improving.

POLITICAL POINTS.

At noon next Monday, Speaker Reed will mail his desk with the gavel and remark: "The House will be in order."

Judge John W. Childress, of Nashville, will make the race for the U. S. Senate against Senator William B. Bate.

Gov. Bradley's Negro man, Postell, whom the Senate turned down for steward of the Western Asylum, has been appointed a store-keeper gauger.

A strong lobby will be in Washington this week to oppose the passage of the Nicaragua Canal bill. The president is strongly in favor of the measure.

Gov. Elect McMillan, of Tennessee, having in an interview scored "Babe" Bailey, of Texas, the latter comes back with counter charges and brands McMillan's statements as infamous lies.

Charles W. Coudock, the veteran actor, died in New York Sunday night.

Mr. W. B. Catchings, of London, has been suggested as a candidate for governor on the republican ticket. There is no doubt that Mr. Catchings would make an admirable governor. As a business man he has few equals in Kentucky. He is a level-headed man of affairs. But Mr. Catchings will not be governor. There is no republican party left in Kentucky.—Louisville Times.

A TERRIBLE blizzard prevailed for awhile Saturday when the snow blew so thick that darkness enveloped the earth some as if the night had drawn its sable curtain over it. The snow fall was light, but it continued to grow cold until Sunday morning when the mercury had been crowded down to 14. Yesterday it hailed and sleeted and the signal service said it would rain last night and today and be warmer.

LICENSES INCREASED.—Beginning yesterday County Clerk G. B. Cooper put up the price for marriage license to $2.50, the 50 cents extra being for the war tariff stamp for the bond. PAL ROGERS, the newly elected marshal of Rowland, had an experience in Hockcastle the other day. A few weeks ago, he went to that county and arrested without a warrant a fellow named Jones, alias Black, for horsestealing committed 15 years ago. The man got off and had Rogers arrested for false arrest and he was taken to Mt. Vernon, where he was held in $400 bond. While there an old warrant against him for searing a woman several years ago named Hysinger was trumped up against him and he had to pay $400 odd before he could shake the dust of the town from his feet.

NOTES FROM LANCASTER.—Wm. Lee, a prominent farmer of the McCreary neighborhood, fell dead of heart disease yesterday morning, aged 60.—The Fiscal court bought J. A. She was the mother of Mrs. H. Clay Kauffman, of this place, and John Greenleaf, of Richmond. Bural here Tuesday afternoon.—There was a good crowd in town, it being circuit as well as county court, and considerable stock, but sales were slow and not very satisfactory. E. C. W.

SHOOT this at them Editor Hainford: A gentleman, whose sympathies have not always been with the local optionists, tells us that he has been going to Somerset for years and during the saloon regime never failed to see from one to 20 drunken men on the streets. He was there recently and did not see a man even under the slightest influence of liquor and although there was a great crowd in town that day, he did not observe the least disorder. The difference under the two conditions was so marked that a man who wouldn't be convinced that the saloons ought to be kept closed would not be convinced through one rose from the dead. The gentleman further said that he had once voted against local option, but that since his observations at Somerset and elsewhere he could not be made to do so again under any circumstances. Whisky is a curse and we hope the good people of Somerset, having once gotten rid of the baleful effects of saloons, will never permit them to open again.

CIRCUIT COURT was convened by a fight Friday afternoon. Jim Dishon, unduly diverted on the Hon. Fontaine Fox Bobbitt in his testimony and he tackled him about it after he had left the stand, telling him that he had sworn to a lie. Dishon called him another and Bobbitt let him have one from his right footer on his nasal appendage, drawing the circuit freely. Dishon made feeble resistance, but Bobbitt got his head in chancery and was pummeling him viciously, when Judge Sauley took a hand. He ordered the belligerents before him, and demanded reasons why they should not be punished for contempt. Bobbitt said he was too near out of breath to answer then, but Dishon told a straight story, which Bobbitt afterwards corroborated and the judge fined him $10 and let Dishon off.

The trial of the slander suit by Diana Powell against Martin Alcorn for $2,000 resulted in a verdict Friday afternoon of $350, making verdicts for $950 obtained against the poor old blind man by his husband and wife. Alcorn is pretty well off and gets $75 a month pension, or his statements against the plaintiffs veracity would not have been rated so highly.

It didn't take the jury but a few seconds Saturday to find in favor of the L. & N. in the damage suit brought by Jane Coffey for $10,000 against it, after Judge Alcorn's telling speech of 20 minutes. The woman claimed to have been injured by a blast fired by the road's employes.

The murder case against Wm. Lewis was dismissed. The jailer was allowed $64 and the sheriff $32 for waiting on the court.

The sheriff has had over 50 applications from men who want to get a free ride to Frankfort as guards for the 10 convicts sentenced at this court and who will be taken to prison Thursday.

A special term of the court will be held on the 21st for trial of several equity cases.

The court over-ruled a motion for a new hearing in the cases against Martin Alcorn and an appeal to the Court of Appeals will be taken.

G. L. Penny, trustee of the jury fund, paid the jurors for the term $814.

George Austin for selling liquor unlawfully was fined $20 in each case and a forfeiture of bond for $20 in each case taken for his failure to appear, making the total judgment against him $240.

The county court was ordered to furnish larger stoves for the circuit court room, to repair the court-house cupola and roof, to make changes in the clerks' offices and have certain repairs done to the jail and residence.

Until his suspension he was pastor of one of the leading Christian Endeavor Societies held Thanksgiving service in the Kentucky penitentiary, when 800 asked for prayers and 20 made confessions. There are three large and prosperous C. E. societies among the prisoners. Of the 1,400 convicts, only one was in the hospital.

Rev. J. S. Sweeney, who has resigned the pastorate of the Paris Christian church after a service of more than a quarter of a century, gave out a notice that at the Sunday night's service he would have something to say that all would like to hear. A great crowd attended and listened to a sweet story of the cross, but not a word did he say of a personal nature, as it was expected he would.

Rev. J. B. Crouch is greatly elated over the result of the Thanksgiving service at his church. It was for the benefit of the Baptist Orphans' Home and $52.60, $25.67 in money and the rest in provisions and clothing were taken up. On 100 souvenir cards $11.40 were realized. The sermon and the program were excellent and taken altogether, it was pronounced by some to have been the best service ever held in the church.

Last month Edmonson county voted "go dry for a spell." The whisky men filed a contest, however, and the board of election commissioners decided the election was illegal, so the saloons are still doing a land office business.

Carson, the man who shot Photographer Singleton, at Lexington, was held in the light ball of $200. County Attorney John R. Allen, who went with him to provoke an assault, ought to have been held at least in that sum.

A coach on a Burlington, Ia., train jumped the track and went down a 50 feet embankment, rolling over twice in the descent and landing right side up. All of its 20 passengers were hurt, two fatally.

Mrs. Margaret Wintersmith, of Elizabethtown, and Dr. J. D. Beard, one of Shelby county's best men, passed away Sunday.

Montgomery county sold $50,000 4 per cent., 30-year bonds at par to a Cincinnati firm.
